Pull up your boots and hold onto your hats when this all-dancing, all-singing, all-new production of the rip-roarin’ musical comedy classic bursts onto the stage with rambunctious energy. This big, brawling, rollicking show is set in 1850s Oregon territory and tells the story of Adam Pontipee and his backwoods brothers’ unusual pursuit of brides. When Adam goes to town to get a wife, he miraculously convinces Milly to marry him that same day, and she immediately starts reforming her six rowdy brothers-in-law. When her plan to marry off the boys backfires, this exuberant rousing musical kicks into high gear with a combination of daredevil dancing and wonderful songs like "Goin' Courtin" and "Wonderful Wonderful Day."

No doubt, a highlight of our visit will be the old Glenside stove and the accompanying kitchen tools as part of “Grandma’s kitchen”. BOOK GROUP
Wednesday, September 14 at 1:00 pm
No meeting in July and August
Our Septembers read is A Confederacy of Dunces by John Kennedy Toole. This book is quite simply a comic masterpiece; a novel brimming with original characters, absurd situations, and at its heart a blustery, vulnerable mama's boy named Ignatius J. Reilly. He believes in aesthetics and real meaning, in what he perceives to be the truth. For this reason, he is a true literary hero. The book won a Pulitzer Prize. You won't read it for the plot, it's all about the zany characters. All newcomer are welcome!
